

I like to fall for you

You may laugh when I fall
When I stumble on the stairs
When I bump into you
To see if u would still catch me

I'm just falling for you
I'd break a leg to amuse you
And you think I don't care
And you think that's just fair

If there's just one hole in the way
Then I'll fall in it
I'll fall in it

A square mile and a single tree
I'll run into it
Can see right through it

If there's one drunk guy in a bar
He'll walk up to me
He'll talk right through me

If there's just one hole in the way
Then I'll fall in it
I'll fall in it

Cause I like to fall for you
