

HAIR DOWN

I went to fairyland
Where ex-girlfriends are holding hands
And they shake to the tunes of Fairyland-radio
They play my favorite band

I stood on the doorway
And listened to what the people say
And the girls in the house were leaning out off their windows
This is my favorite show

Hair down
Hair down
Hair down
This is my favorite show

Woke up as a middle man
This is how my day began
And we shared a wake-and-bake
Shared a coffe and a cake
And this
Is how my day began

Checked in business class
They checked my boarding pass
Checked my passport and my face
Put my things back into place
Yeah right, wish it was really so

Hair down
Hair down
Hair down

Hair down
Hair down
Hair down
Wish it was really so
