

I'll be fine

I'm wrapped in down
But still I freeze like a feather
I'll be fine in the sunshine

Been waiting too long
Until they switch to my weather
I'll be fine, fine, fine in the sunshine

I seriously doubt
That it will ever get better
I'll be fine in the sunshine

I wanna fall in a coma with u
And wake up together
I'll be fine, fine fine in the sunshine

And you would be surprised if you opened your eyes
And u find yourself
On a bed of roses

And you dive deep down
In a submarine
And you wouldn't name a submarine Moses

I'm sicker than ever
I need to raise my dosis
I'll be fine in the sunshine

And I'm so down
That I don't know where my nose is
I'll be fine, fine, fine in the sunshine

I count my worries
And started giving them numbers

It feels like I might have missed
The last 28 summers

I miss the sight of yellow pine
I'll be fine, fine, fine in the sunshine

Go Moses part the red sea
One more time
Or admit that it was a change of weather

Or was it just a lake
Or a shallow lagoon
Or whatever
